

Call for Application
FUCE Summer School 2026

FUCE (European Federation of Catholic Universities) organizes its seventh summer school on 'European Humanism in the Making' in Lille, France, at the premises of Université Catholique de Lille, from June 29th until July 3th 2026 and invites Bachelor Students (L2 and L3) to apply.

Deadline: February 2nd, 2026

Application criteria:

- Students coming from Albania, Vatican, Georgia, Lebanon, Ukraine and France: travel costs are borne by the sending university. Costs for stay (accommodation and meals) are entirely covered by FUCE.
- Students coming from other countries under the Erasmus + program, will be able to get a short-term grant mobility via the International Relations Office of their university. Each student will obtain 553€ (79€ x 7 days) which will help her/him to pay for accommodation and meals but also a transport allocation depending the distance between their university and Lille. Any other additional cost will be at their charge.

Eligibility requirements:

Interested students are requested to submit the following documents to osa@ua.edu.lb :

- CV
- Motivation letter (showcasing your motivation to participate in the summer school)
- Copy of valid Passport

The selection committee at FUCE will take into consideration the fulfillment of formal eligibility requirements, the academic profile of the candidates and the motivation of the candidates. The profile of the selected group of participants as a whole will be taken into account, the aim being to constitute a group that is as complementary and multidisciplinary as possible. The committee should come to a decision by March 2026 at the latest.
