

Call for Applications UH2C Summer School 2026

Hassan II University of Casablanca (UH2C) organizes the 4th edition of its Summer School on Digital Transformation of Society & Ethics at Casablanca, Morocco (ENSEM campus) from July 21st to July 30th, 2026. The UH2C Summer School is an immersive academic experience designed for students who want to critically engage with digital transformation and its societal impact. Topics include data, artificial intelligence, governance, ethics, inclusion, and environmental impact of digital technologies, and they are taught in English.

This opportunity is available for only 1 UA student.

A certificate of attendance will be awarded to participants at the end.

Deadline: June 7th, 2026

Fund

- Travel expenses to Morocco are to be covered by the student
- Accommodation, meals and transportation in Casablanca are covered by UH2C
- Accepted international applicants must submit their travel and accommodation details to UH2C

Eligibility Requirements

- All disciplines are included
- Student aged between 18 and 30
- Currently enrolled in a Bachelor's, Master's, Engineering, or PhD program
- Proficiency in English is required

Required Documents

Submit the following documents via eunit@ua.edu.lb, combined in 1 single PDF:

- Proof of enrollment at UA (2025–2026)
- Curriculum Vitae (max 2 pages)
- Recommendation letter, signed by an authorized person
- Copy of valid Passport (If your nationality requires a visa, UH2C will issue an invitation letter)

Click here for more information on the Summer School or contact eunit@ua.edu.lb